History 321: Revolutionary America

Professor McConville
ROOM 503/ DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY
226 Bay State Rd.
Office Hours Tuesday-1230-130, Thursday 10-1050, or by appointment.

THE COURSE REQUIREMENTS ARE: two papers, two exams, a brief photo essay, and participation in occasional discussions. The two papers and exams will be weighed equally, and the photo essay will be counted towards your final grade.

COURSE RULES
All work must be handed in on time; all late papers will lose a half a grade per day. Timely attendance is required; please turn off your cell phones when in class. Please respect your classmates and conduct yourself in an appropriate manner. ALL grades are final. If you engage in any form of academic dishonesty, you will fail the course and be referred to the dean for students for further disciplinary action. All work must be your own and appropriately documented. PLEASE CONSULT THE APPROPRIATE UNDERGRADUATE ACADEMIC CONDUCT CODES AS PROVIDED BY THE UNIVERSITY.
BU Academic Conduct Code: http://www.bu.edu/academics/policies/academic-conduct-code/
GRS Academic Conduct Code: http://www.bu.edu/cas/students/graduate/forms-policies-procedures/academic-discipline-procedures/

COURSE SUPPORT
1. Please make use of faculty office hours (listed above). It is one of the most effective ways to improve your course performance when you need help.
2. Accommodations: Boston University complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. If you are a student who needs academic accommodations because of a documented disability, you should contact me and present your letter of accommodation as soon as possible to ensure that your needs are addressed from the start of the course. If you have questions about documenting a disability or requesting academic accommodations, contact the Office of Disability Services at access@bu.edu and 617-353-3658. Information about these policies can be found online at www.bu.edu/disability/policies-procedures.
