

Mutual fund investment options made up of stocks, bonds and short-term investments are offered by Fidelity Investments through the Boston University Retirement Plan and Supplemental Retirement and Savings Plan. 29 of these Fidelity mutual funds are known as Class K shares. These 29 K share mutual funds offer you the same investment strategy and risk as the non-K share investments by the same name, but the overall expenses are lower.

The investment objectives and policies of each fund, as well as the expenses and fees for the fund, are described in the fund's prospectus. Refer to www.fidelity.com/atwork for more information about the investment options in the plan.

Keep in mind that the fees and expenses of the investments you select have an impact on the overall returns of your investment portfolio. Boston University periodically reviews the investment options available to you to make sure you have the lowest-cost share classes offered by the investment options available in the Plan.

The table on this and the following pages lists the 29 Class K investment options in the Boston University Retirement Plan and Supplemental Retirement Savings Plan. The data is as of August 4, 2009.

Boston University Retirement Plan participants currently investing with Fidelity may log on to Fidelity NetBenefits® at www.fidelity.com/atwork or call Fidelity toll free at 1-800-343-0860, Monday through Friday (excluding New York Stock Exchange holidays) between 8:30 a.m. and midnight Eastern time to speak with a Retirement Services Representative.

Before investing in any investment option, please carefully consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses. For this and other information, call Fidelity at 1-800-343-0860 or visit www.fidelity.com/atwork for a free mutual fund prospectus. For information on fixed annuities, contact Fidelity to request a fact sheet. Read them carefully before you invest.

The Plan is intended to be a participant-directed plan as described in Section 404(c) of ERISA, which means that fiduciaries of the Plan are ordinarily relieved of liability for any losses that are the direct and necessary result of investment instructions given by a participant or beneficiary.

For a mutual fund, the expense ratio is the total annual fund or class operating expenses (before waivers or reimbursements) paid by the fund and stated as a percent of the fund's total net assets. Mutual fund data has been drawn from the most recent prospectus.*
