Causeway International Value Fund Class Institutional
Ticker: CIVIX

Gross expense ratio: 0.88% as of 01/25/2019

Objective: The investment seeks long-term growth of capital and income.

Strategy: The fund invests primarily in common stocks of companies in developed countries outside the U.S. Normally, it invests at least 80% of its total assets in stocks of companies in a number of foreign countries and invests the majority of its total assets in companies that pay dividends or repurchase their shares. The fund may invest up to 15% of its total assets in companies in emerging (less developed) markets.

Risk: Foreign securities are subject to interest-rate, currency-exchange-rate, economic, and political risks, all of which may be magnified in emerging markets. Value stocks can perform differently than other types of stocks and can continue to be undervalued by the market for long periods of time. Stock markets are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, economic or other developments. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Short-term redemption fee: This fund has a Short-term Redemption Fee of 2.00% for shares held less than 60 days.

Who may want to invest: Someone who is seeking to complement a portfolio of domestic investments with international investments, which can behave differently. Someone who is willing to accept the higher degree of risk associated with investing overseas.
