What do the Pentagon Papers, Watergate, Iran-Contra, American Indian Movement Wounded Knee occupation, Daniel Berrigan, SJ peace activism, Black Panthers, Attica Prison inmates, Karen Silkwood, Three-Mile Island, American Sanctuary Movement, Greensboro Civil Rights, and Lakota People’s Law Project all have in common?

Attorney Daniel Sheehan.

Daniel P. Sheehan received a B.A from Harvard College in American Government Studies and U.S. Foreign Policy; a J.D. from Harvard Law School in American Constitutional Law and International Law; and pursued master’s and doctoral studies at the Harvard Divinity School, 1973-5, in Judeo-Christian Social Ethics and Comparative Social Ethics. He is Co-Founder and President of the Cambridge Institute for the Study of Alternative Worldviews at Harvard University.

Attorney Sheehan will autograph his memoir, The People’s Advocate, at Barnes & Noble, Kenmore Square, Wednesday, April 9, 5:30-6:00.
