

LILIAN V. FAULHABER

EDUCATION

HARVARD LAW SCHOOL, J.D., cum laude 2005

Activities: Harvard International Law Journal, Editor-in-Chief
European Law Research Center, Researcher on U.N. Reform
American Constitution Society, Alumni Relations Coordinator
Working Group on Student Experiences
Honors: Mancini Prize for writing on the law of the European Union
Heyman Summer Intern

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY, M.Phil. 2001

Concentration: European Studies
Thesis: The Involvement of the American Committee on United Europe in the Early Integration Process of Western Europe, 1949-1960
Activities: Cambridge Review of International Affairs
Trinity College BA Society

HARVARD COLLEGE, A.B., magna cum laude 2000

Concentrations: History and Literature; Romance Languages and Literatures
Thesis: Un Nouveau Monde or a Nefarious Institution: Debates over Slavery in the French and American Revolutions
Activities: Radcliffe Varsity Lightweight Crew
Harvard Model and National Model United Nations
Housing and Neighborhood Development
Honors: Jeremy Belknap Prize for French composition
Aloian/Beal Award for service and leadership in Quincy House

TEACHING AND RESEARCH INTERESTS

PRIMARY INTERESTS: Federal Income Tax, European Union Law, Tax Policy

OTHER INTERESTS: International Tax, International Law, Corporations, Property, Comparative Law

PUBLICATIONS

Hypersalience and Taxation (in progress)

Shining Light on International Tax Evasion: The Fight Against Tax Fraud and Tax Haven Abuse in the United States (forthcoming)

Sovereignty, Integration, and Tax Avoidance in the European Union: Striking the Proper Balance, 48 COLUM. J. TRANSNAT'L L. 117 (2010)

Cured Meat and Idaho Potatoes: A Comparative Analysis of European and American Protection and Enforcement of Geographic Indications of Foodstuffs, 11 COLUM. J. EUR. L. 623 (2005)

Recent Development, American Service Members' Protection Act of 2002, 40 HARV. J. ON LEGIS. 537 (2003)

PRESENTATIONS

JUNIOR TAX SCHOLARS' WORKSHOP June 2011
The Other Side of the Saliency Debate

NEW ENGLAND JUNIOR SCHOLARS CONFERENCE July 2010
The Network of Tax Litigation: An Empirical Study of the Written Decisions of the United States Tax Court

SYMPOSIUM ON EUROPEAN TAX POLICY May 2010
International Tax Developments in the United States: Fighting Tax Fraud and Tax Haven Abuse

CONFERENCE ON EMPIRICAL LEGAL STUDIES November 2009
A Tale of Two Codes: An Empirical Analysis of the Jurisprudence of the United States Tax Court

HARVARD POLITICAL NETWORKS CONFERENCE June 2009
A Social Network Analysis of American Tax Jurisprudence (1990-2008)

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE LAW AND SOCIETY ASSOCIATION May 2009
Wholly Artificial Arrangements: The Anti-Avoidance Doctrine of the European Court of Justice

JUDICIAL CLERKSHIPS

SENIOR JUDGE ROBERT E. KEETON 2005 – 2006
U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts

JUDGE WILLIAM G. YOUNG 2006
U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts

WORK EXPERIENCE

BOSTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, Boston, MA 2010 – present
Associate Professor of Law
Teach upper-level courses concerning federal income taxation, international taxation, and international business transactions.

HARVARD LAW SCHOOL, Cambridge, MA 2008 – 2010
Climenko Fellow and Lecturer on Law

Taught one section of the First-Year Legal Research and Writing Program to forty first-year law students. Read first and final drafts of three written assignments and provided instruction on objective and persuasive writing and oral advocacy.

HARVARD COLLEGE, Cambridge, MA 2008 – 2010
Senior Resident Tutor, Currier House

Oversaw advising of 400 undergraduate students. Member of the Pre-Law Committee. Public Service Tutor. Chair of the Tutor Selection Committee. Provided academic guidance to sophomores and met with juniors and seniors having academic difficulties. Assisted students applying to law school and wrote letters of recommendation.

CLEARY GOTTLIEB STEEN & HAMILTON LLP, New York, NY 2006 – 2008
Associate

Provided tax advice to clients structuring equity offerings. Drafted and reviewed tax disclosure for dozens of note offerings. Assisted pro bono clients with 501(c)(3) incorporations and litigation matters.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, Washington, DC 2003
Summer Intern, Office of Overseas Prosecutorial Development, Assistance, and Training, Central and Eastern Europe

Produced comparative study of prosecutor's role in seven Central and Eastern European countries. Researched and wrote memos on various aspects of American and European legal systems.

MUSEUM OF JEWISH HERITAGE, New York, NY 2001 – 2002
Executive Assistant to the Director

Provided support for Director of the Living Memorial to the Holocaust. Acted as liaison between Director and Museum staff and Board of Directors. Hired and screened applicants in absence of Director of Human Resources.

UNITED STATES EMBASSY, Paris, France Summer 1999
Intern, Office of American Services

Designed customer-service survey and recommended changes to improve office's services and publicity. Took initiative to learn American and French laws in order to provide customers with better notarial services.

OTHER

LANGUAGE: Fluent in French

BAR MEMBERSHIP: Admitted to the New York State Bar in 2006