

Intellectual Property Concentration Requirements

To complete an Intellectual Property concentration within the LLM in American Law Program, students need to complete at least four classes, distributed as follows among groups I, II and III. You may choose to follow either Option A or Option B.

S = Seminar

GSM = Questrom School of Business

TX = Graduate Tax Program

OPTION A

Group I: Intellectual Property Law

Group II: TWO of the following courses in IP:

Bench to Bedside (GSM)	IP Workshop (S)
Copyright Law	Patent Law
Drugs, Devices & Diagnostics (GSM)	Practice of US Copyright and Trademark
Economics of IP (S)	Privacy (S)
Entertainment Law (S)	Structuring IP Ownership (TX)
Food, Drug and Cosmetic Law (S)	Taxation of IP (TX)
IP & the Internet (S)	Trade Secrets & Restrictive Covenants
Intellectual Property Rights & Commerce in the Global Cloud	Trademark & Unfair Competition
IP Licensing in the Global Marketplace (S)

Group III: ONE of the following background related classes:

Any Group II Class (above)	International Business Agreements (S)
Administrative Law	International Business Transactions
Antitrust Law	Starting New Ventures (GSM)
Contracts	Transactional Contracts (for LL.M. students)
Corporations	Trans. Simulation: Forming and Financing a Start-Up Business (S)

OPTION B

Group I: TWO of the following "basic courses" in IP:

Copyright Law
Patent Law
Practice of US Copyright and Trademark
Trademark Law & Unfair Competition

Group II: ONE of the following IP-related classes:

Any Group I Class (above)	IP licensing in the Global Marketplace (S)
Bench to Bedside (GSM)	IP Workshop (S)
Copyright Law	Patent Law
Drugs, Devices & Diagnostics (GSM)	Privacy (S)
Economics of IP (S)	Structuring IP Ownership (TX)
Entertainment Law (S)	Taxation of IP (TX)
Food, Drug and Cosmetic Law (S)	Trade Secrets & Restrictive Covenants
IP & the Internet (S)

Group III -- ONE of the following background/related classes:

Any Group I Class (above)

Administrative Law

Antitrust Law

Contracts

Corporations

International Business Agreements (S)

International Business Transactions

Starting New Ventures (GSM)

Transactional Contracts (for LL.M. students)

Trans. Simulation: Forming and Financing a Start-Up Business (S)