You should keep a copy of all materials you submit to us, since we cannot return or copy any part of your application. We also cannot return original transcripts after we receive them.

- 1. Application for Admission. We recommend that you complete the online application form at: www.bu.edu/law/prospective/apply/llm. Alternatively, you may complete and sign the application form included with these materials, or download the paper forms from the admissions page of our Web site. Use additional sheets of paper if necessary to give complete answers to any of the questions on the application form.
- 2. Application Fee. Payment of a nonrefundable application fee of U.S. $75 must accompany the application. Online applicants may pay this fee by credit card only. Other applicants may pay the fee in the form of a money order or check in U.S. dollars, made payable to Boston University.
- 3. Academic Records. You should fill out the identifying information at the top of the transcript request form included in the application materials and send it (or a copy of it) to the registrar's office of each college or university from which you have received a degree. (If you are a Boston University School of Law student or graduate, you need not provide original undergraduate transcripts.) Schools should mail official transcripts to you to be submitted, unopened, with the application. (If this procedure is against school policy, you should indicate on the application form that your school is mailing the transcripts directly to us.) The official transcript or an accompanying report must contain your class standing or an official approximation of class standing, together with a description of the school's grading system. All transcripts or other academic records must be official documents bearing the registrar's signature and/or the institution's seal. If these records are not in English, a certified English translation must be submitted together with the originals or copies. Complete official transcripts or notarized, full-sized copies from all colleges, universities, or graduate schools from which you have received a degree must be submitted along with an official certification of the law degree received. We recommend that international applicants register with LSAC's (Law School Admission Council's) LL.M. Credential Assembly Service. At least one must be from a former law professor; the other should be from a law professor, a law school administrator, or an employment supervisor. A recommendation form, which you may photocopy, is provided with these application materials. You should ask each recommender to enclose the recommendation form and letter in an envelope, seal the envelope, sign it across the seal, and return it to you to be submitted, unopened, with the other application materials. (If a recommender prefers, he or she may mail the recommendation directly to us, and you should indicate on the application form that the recommender is doing so.)
