IMPORTANT INFORMATION

• International courses taken after your BU matriculation transfer through the Study Abroad Office. Students taking courses at an international institution must fill out the Study Abroad Transfer of Credit form. Please follow the instructions at www.bu.edu/abroad/external_programs to receive international credit.

• A minimum grade of a C is needed for transfer. Credit is not awarded for courses completed on a pass/fail basis.

• Students may NOT take summer courses at other institutions within the Greater Boston Area (within Route 128) if the course is offered through BU Summer Term.

• Courses taken outside of Boston University will not affect your BU GPA.

• Communication courses taken elsewhere may not replace COM requirements. Those courses can be counted as electives only. These courses must be pre-approved.

• All students must graduate with 128 academic credits.*

*For students entering BU prior to Fall 2012:

• Students may transfer up to four 3-semester-hour courses without having to make up the one credit difference. For example, taking one 3 credit course will lower credits needed to graduate to 127, a second 3 credit course will lower credits needed to graduate to 126, a third three credit course will lower credits needed to graduate to 125, a fourth 3 credit course will lower credits needed to graduate to 124. No student can graduate with fewer than 124 credits. (See below for conversion table).

Conversion Table
The following table is used to convert from another school’s three-credit system (or any system that grants less than four semester credits) to our four-credit system. It is applicable when used for this purpose within the College of Communication.
