Major in Philosophy and Political Science

To major in Philosophy and Political Science, a student takes a series of eleven courses as outlined below. Students must earn a minimum grade of C in courses taken toward the major.

☐ Three 300 or 500 level Political Science courses in Political Theory:

________________&________________&________________

☐ Two other Political Science courses:

________________&________________

☐ PH 300: History of Ancient Philosophy
☐ PH 310: History of Modern Philosophy
☐ PH 350: History of Ethics
☐ Any one of the following courses:

PH 253: Social Philosophy     PH 254: Political Philosophy
PH 255: Philosophy of Law     PH 453: Theories of Political Society
PH 454: Community, Liberty, and Morality
PH 455: Legal Philosophy

☐ One additional Philosophy Course (200 level or higher)
☐ Any other Philosophy Course

Please note that one of the eleven courses must be either a Political Science Senior Seminar or a Philosophy “topics” course.

No more than one 100-level political science course can count towards the major. It is recommended that the first course in political science be a 100 or 200-level course in one of the following subfields: American Politics, Public Policy, Comparative Politics, International Relations, or Political Theory