

Inspection Microscope

- A Leitz Orthoplan inspection microscope is located in the Class-100 cleanroom.
- It is used for observing, video imaging, and capturing digital images of surfaces including developed photoresist patterns on wafers and for device inspection.

