The Kulick & Soffa wedge bonder is located in the Class-1000 cleanroom.

It uses a 1 mil aluminum wire to connect simple integrated circuits and discrete devices to bonding pads on a package.

Ultrasonic wedge wire bonding is designed to interconnect wire leads between contact pads and semiconductor, hybrid, microwave, or MEMS devices.