

Ph.D. Dissertations currently advised by Judith Swanson (as “First Reader”):

Candidate: Joo Hee Suh

Title: “Aristotle, Hannah Arendt and Political Philosophy”

Proposal defended: March 5th, 2014

Second Reader: Professor C. Allen Speight, Department of Philosophy

Third Reader: Professor Neta C. Crawford, Department of Political Science

---

Candidate: Erin L. Bohanan

Title: “Prudence, Moderation and Reason in the Federalist Papers”

Proposal defended: December 6th, 2013

Second Reader: Professor James W. Schmidt, Departments of Philosophy, Political Science, and History

Third Reader: Professor Douglas Kriner, Department of Political Science

---

Candidate: Eniola Anuoluwapo Soyemi

Title: "The Bonded State: the Significance of Participation and the Law’s Moral Legitimacy”

Proposal defended: May 21st, 2013

Second Reader: Professor Timothy P. Longman, Department of Political Science and Director of the African Studies Center

Third Reader: Professor Neta C. Crawford, Department of Political Science

---

Candidate: Abram Trosky

Title: "Moralizing Violence? Social Psychological Peace Research and the Just War Tradition”

Proposal defended: October 12th, 2012

Second Reader: Professor Kathleen Malley-Morrison, Department of Psychology

Third Reader: Professor Douglas Kriner, Department of Political Science