

Annual Report on Program Student Learning Outcomes Assessment

Program: BA in Linguistics & Philosophy

Program Contact and Title: Carol Neidle, Head, Undergraduate Linguistics Program; Juliet Floyd, Professor of Philosophy

College/School Contact and Title: Susan Jackson, Associate Dean

Date: October 2013

1. List the learning outcomes for the program

Students graduating with a major in Linguistics & Philosophy are able to demonstrate:

1. Some mastery of the history and development of analytic philosophy and the concepts of truth, reference, objectivity, and meaning as they have figured in philosophy of the last century or so.
2. An understanding of fundamental concepts in the philosophy of language and logic.
3. Foundational knowledge in the core areas of linguistic theory, including phonetics, syntax, semantics, and pragmatics, with additional emphasis on one of the latter three subfields.
4. An understanding of the fundamental questions that drive modern linguistic research in the subfields listed in Outcome #3