

Annual Report on Program Student Learning Outcomes Assessment

Program: BA in Music (non-performance)

Program Contact and Title: Jeremy Yudkin, Chair, CFA Department of Music
(Musicology and Ethnomusicology)

College/School Contact and Title: Susan Jackson, Associate Dean

Date: October 2013

1. List the learning outcomes for the program

Students graduating with a major in Music are able to:

1. Demonstrate advanced knowledge of music theory, including formal and compositional idioms from the Middle Ages to the present
2. Demonstrate advanced knowledge of music analysis and aural skills
3. Demonstrate broad familiarity with, and the ability to write about, music history from the Middle Ages to the present, as well as some specialized knowledge of periods and topical areas in Western classical, popular, and/or world music
4. Understand the relationship between music (and its culture and context) and
5. analogous artistic movements