

Annual Report on Program Student Learning Outcomes Assessment

Program: Doctor of Science in Dentistry (DScD) in Endodontics (ENDO)

Program Contact and Title:

College/School Contact and Title:

ENDODNTICS (ENDO):

- Learning Goal/Objective or Competency #1: To train endodontists who possess the knowledge and skills required to diagnose, understand the basis of, and adequately treat, alone or in concert with other dental and medical practitioners, endodontic problems and their related diseases and to maintain the health of the attachment apparatus.
- Learning Goal/Objective or Competency #2: To train endodontists who possess the knowledge and skills critically evaluate and apply current technological developments and research into their clinical practice of Endodontics.
- Learning Goal/Objective or Competency #3: To train endodontists who become Diplomates of the American Board of Endodontics.
- Learning Goal/Objective or Competency #4: To train endodontists who have successful careers in clinical practice, research, and/or education.