

Annual Report on Program Learning Outcomes Assessment

Program: BA in Religion

Program Contact and Title: David Frankfurter, Professor of Religion, Chair,
Department of Religion; dtmf@bu.edu.

College/School Contact and Title: Diana Lobel, Associate Department of Religion, dnlobel@bu.edu.

Date: November 15, 2015

1. Listing the learning outcomes for the program:

- A. Students will demonstrate knowledge of multiple religious traditions, including their history, ideas, rituals, and vocabulary.
- B. Students will demonstrate ability to interpret critically religious texts, ritual practices, and other forms of religious expression.
- C. Students will demonstrate and apply understanding of major theoretical models for the study of religion to religious events, phenomena, ideas and texts.
- D. Students will demonstrate ability to research religious events/phenomena/ideas in a substantive and responsible way.
- E. Students will demonstrate an advanced knowledge of at least one religious tradition.