

Annual Report on Program Learning Outcomes Assessment

Program: MS in Speech-Language Pathology

Program Contact and Title: Michelle Mentis, Clinical Professor and Director, MS-SLP, mmentis@bu.edu

College/School Contact and Title: Melanie Matthies, Associate Professor and Chair SLHS, Senior Associate Dean Sargent College, matthies@bu.edu

Date: 11/15/15

1. List the learning outcomes for the program:

- Students graduating with a MS degree in Speech Language Pathology will:
- Demonstrate knowledge in the basic sciences and normal processes related to communication, cognition, and swallowing.
- Identify, diagnose, intervene and counsel individuals with communication and swallowing difficulties across the life span and from different cultural and linguistic backgrounds within an evidence-based practice framework.
- Successfully complete a capstone experience that requires the synthesis and integration of acquired knowledge related to communication and swallowing disorders within an evidence-based practice framework.