

Directory Information Restriction

Use this form to manage public access to your data at Boston University

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) protects the privacy of your education records and restricts disclosure of personal information from your education records, except as authorized by law. For information on Boston University's FERPA policy, please refer to the Registrar's Office website at www.bu.edu/registrar.

The University has designated certain types of personally identifiable information as "Directory Information." A list of this information is set forth below. Unless restricted, Boston University may disclose any of the items of Directory Information without your consent.

Boston University will not release grades or GPA information without your prior consent. In addition, Boston University does not provide student lists outside the University for purposes of marketing.

To control access to your Academic Information, you must use the Consent to Disclosure feature on the Student Link.

Any and all data that you restrict below will not be released outside the University.
