Broadening Participation in STEM
April 3, 2018 | 4-6 PM

Introductions:
Gloria Waters  Vice President and Associate Provost for Research
Crystal Williams  Associate Provost for Diversity & Inclusion

Research Presentations:

• Technology Innovation Scholars Program
  Stacey Freeman, Assistant Dean of Outreach & Diversity, ENG

• Broadening Participation in STEM: STEM in the City Summer Program
  Ellen Faszewski, Professor, Biology, Wheelock College

• BU Spark!
  Ziba Cranmer, Director, BU Spark!

• Opportunities to Promote Diversity in Biology
  Kim McCall, Professor and Chair, Biology, CAS

• Boston UniverCity: Training Graduate Students in Biogeoscience and Environmental Health to Tackle Urban Environmental Challenges
  Pamela Templer, Professor, Biology, CAS

• Photonics Center, Broadening Participation Through NSF Programs
  Thomas Bifano, Professor, Mechanical Engineering and Materials Science & Engineering, ENG, and Director, Photonics Center; and Xin Zhang, Professor, Mechanical Engineering, Electrical & Computer Engineering, and Materials Science & Engineering, ENG

• Increasing Diversity in the Biomedical Workforce
  Isabel Dominguez, Assistant Dean for Diversity & Multicultural Affairs; Director, STaRS Program; and Assistant Professor, Medicine, MED

• ARROWS: Advancing Women in STEM @ BU
  Joyce Wong, Professor, Biomedical Engineering and Materials Science & Engineering, ENG

• Expansive Meanings and Makings in Artscience
  Beth Warren, Associate Dean for Research and Associate Professor, SED

• Rethinking Elementary Investigations to Support Meaningful Engagement in Science Practice
  Eve Manz, Assistant Professor, SED
• Broadening Participation through Focusing on Teacher Learning
  Lynsey Gibbons, Assistant Professor, SED

• Sea Change: Supporting Institutional Transformation for Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion
  Joyce Wong, Professor, Biomedical Engineering and Materials Science & Engineering, ENG

• BU-AGREED
  Diane Thompson, Assistant Professor, Earth & Environment, CAS

Thank you for your participation