A conversation with renowned Cameroonian filmmaker

Jean Marie Teno

and screening of
"A Trip to the Country"

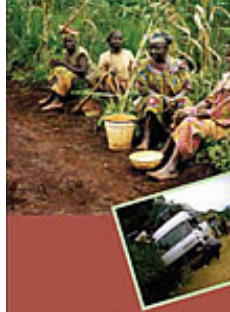

April 21, 5-7 PM

232 Bay State Road, Room 505

Jean-Marie Teno belongs to the 90s generation of African filmmakers. With committed short, documentary and feature films, he aims to open the eyes of Africans and Europeans to colonialism, neo-colonialism, migration, dictatorship and the abuse of power in Africa.
