Under Fall 2018, select ‘Reg Options’
Prior to the start of registration, you can choose to plan your schedule. Select ‘Plan’

Your registration start date and time will display.

If advising is required, advising box will display. Advising code can be entered at any time prior to registration and once removed it will not need to be entered again. You do not need to enter your advising code to plan your schedule.
Select ‘Add’ to search the class schedule and add classes to your Planner
Enter search criteria and select Go
Courses with a check box can be selected to be added to your Planner.
Flagged courses are not available due to being full or reserved for select populations of students. The “Notes” column can provide additional info.
You can select the course number to view the course description. Short course title, instructor last name, open seats, credits, course type and course dates/times will display.

Check box(es) for course(s) to add to planner, then select ‘Continue Search’ to search for more courses or select ‘Add to Planner’ to add selected courses to your planner.
You can view the courses in your Class Planner and continue to remove/add classes to your planner up until registration.
Instructions for registration day
Student Link

Go to www.bu.edu/studentlink

Enter BU login name and password
Select the ‘Academics’ tab
Select ‘Registration’
Under Fall 2018, select ‘Reg Options’
Your registration start date and time will display.

You shouldn’t see the Advising code box on registration day. If you do, please contact us. (Your advising code can be entered at any time prior to registration and once removed it will not need to be entered again.)
Select ‘Register for Class’
If you have previously added classes to your Planner, select [Go] to register for classes from your planner.

If you haven’t planned your schedule, you can search for classes by entering search criteria and selecting Go.
Courses with a check box can be selected to register. Flagged courses are not available due to being full or reserved for select populations of students. The “Notes” column can provide additional info. You can select the course number to view the course description. Short course title, instructor last name, open seats, credits, course type and course dates/times will display. If no course dates are listed, then course runs for the full semester.

Check box(es) for course(s) to add, then select ‘Continue Search’ to search for more courses or select ‘Add Classes to Schedule’ to register.
After selecting to ‘Add Classes to Schedule’ you will be asked to confirm your selection.
A confirmation page will display the courses added to your schedule.
You can return to ‘Reg Options’ under Fall 2018 to add or drop classes from your schedule.
Please note important deadlines for making changes to your schedule:
