COURSES: THE FIRST FIVE WEEKS
(CORE PHASE)
Students take one, 4-credit core course in their academic area to prepare for their internships, and one, 4-credit elective course. Each student also meets with the program’s internship placement advisors to refine his or her area of work placement according to ability, professional goals, experience, and work habits.

Required Course
PS 365 Psychology Applied to Social Issues

Elective Courses
Students choose one of the following courses.
- CAS MA 113 Elementary Statistics (Required for Sargent College students enrolled in the Psychology & Health Sciences Track.)
- CAS SO 321 Contemporary Issues in British Welfare

COURSES: THE FINAL EIGHT WEEKS
(PLACEMENT PHASE)
Students participate in London’s work life through assigned internships that complement their particular academic concentration and personal goals. Students work full-time, four days a week, while enrolled in a related, weekly elective seminar course.

Elective Courses
Students choose one, 4-credit elective course from the London Internship Program offerings.
