TEACHING METHODS AND LEARNING EXPERIENCES:

This class will consist of a full-time clinical experience under the guidance and supervision of a physical therapist clinical instructor(s).

Students are required to complete:

- Weekly Planning Forms and submit to course instructor throughout the course unless indicated otherwise,
- All assignments on the Blackboard PT7923 2016 course web-site
- All formative, summative, and reflective evaluative assessments as indicated on this syllabus or the course Blackboard site

REQUIRED READINGS:

- CPI-web
- Minimum Required Skills Set
- Core Values Document
- Boston University DPT Clinical Education Manual

METHODS OF STUDENT EVALUATIONS/GRADING:

The Clinical Experience I will be graded as Pass/Fail.

Determination of the "P" or "F" grade is made by the ACCEs at Boston University based on:

- Completion and submission of Weekly Planning Forms
- Completion of /participation in all assignments on the Blackboard PT793 course web-site including Core Values
- Grading and comments on the Clinical Performance Instrument (CI and student)
- Any and all anecdotal records/critical incident reports written to address professional behavior issues and/or performance that may accompany the Clinical Performance Instrument
- Recommendations of the CCCEs and CIs

All candidates must successfully pass each clinical experience to continue in the program.

Summative Evaluation—APTA Clinical Performance Instrument: The objectives contained in each syllabus reflect performance on a rating scale based on a continuum from beginning to beyond entry level practice.

Successful completion of PT793 requires an assessment of performance at or greater than Entry Level on the CPI-web. Difficulty with a performance criterion that is a red-flag item warrants immediate attention and a call to the ACCE. The CI must provide full documentation of performance difficulties to the CCCE, ACCE and the student.

OTHER POLICIES:

Academic Policies:

Students are expected to maintain academic honesty, to demonstrate integrity and to uphold high standards of professionalism while completing clinical education experiences. Academic dishonesty in any form will not be tolerated. Refer to Physical Therapy Program’s Clinical Education Manual for specific statements.

Requests for Special Accommodations:

Any student who has a disability that requires accommodations to complete the clinical education course requirements must identify such needs to their ACCE sufficiently in advance of the necessary accommodations so that appropriate arrangements can be made. Students must also inform the clinical site of the need for accommodation. Documentation recommending that special accommodations be provided must be on file in the Department of Physical Therapy and Athletic Training. The clinic shall not provide accommodations beyond their scope or comfort level.

Harassment/Assault Resources:

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 is a federal civil rights law that prohibits sex-based discrimination in federally funded education programs and activities. This law makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender is a Civil Rights offense subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories such as race, national origin, etc. If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you can find the appropriate resources at <http://www.bu.edu/safety/sexual-misconduct/>.
