- 3) Submit the following documents on-line IN WORD FORMAT to Deborah Claar dsclaar@bu.edu:
 - *A completed application form
 - *A resume clearly delineating your leadership involvement in the activities listed above
 - *A one page double spaced typed essay on what it has meant to be a student leader in your activities.
 - *An on-line letter of reference from someone attesting to your personal attributes. This person must be a faculty member, research coordinator, employer in a health care setting or an advisor. Please request that the recommendation be sent by email to Deborah Claar: dsclaar@bu.edu

Seniors can be considered for the following awards:

COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

This award is given to students who are actively involved in volunteering services outside the university using the skills that have been attained through their education while showing an outstanding ability to represent the ideals set forth by the college.

STUDENT ACTIVITY AWARD

This award recognizes students who have made significant contributions to college and/or university extra-curricular activities.

PROFESSIONAL CONTRIBUTION AWARD

This award is given to students who show great potential in their chosen profession through scholarship, research, clinical experience, and promotion of one's program to the community.

TWINESS AWARD

An honor society organized by the Class of 1921 to recognize seniors who exemplify the ideals of service, loyalty, thoughtfulness, and excellence of scholarship.

BERNARD KUTNER AWARD

This award is given to the student who exemplifies all the ideals of Sargent College through excellence of scholarship, high moral character, outstanding service to the school as well as the community, loyalty and service to one's fellow students, and exemplary potential as a health care professional. This award is made in memory of the late Dean, Bernard Kutner, whose vision during his tenure expanded and enhanced the educational offerings at Sargent College.

DEADLINE TO SUBMIT ON-LINE APPLICATIONS IS FRIDAY, MARCH 6, 2020 TO DEBORAH CLAAAR, dsclaar@bu.edu.
