

The BU Program in Scripture & the Arts and the BU Center for the Study of Asia present...

Why Do Hindus Argue About Their Scripture and Who Is Allowed to Hear It?

a lecture by Professor Wendy Doniger, University of Chicago's Mircea Eliade Distinguished Service Professor of the History of Religions, with a response from Professor David Frankfurter, Aurelio Chair, BU Department of Religion

Join us for a renowned expert's view of the history of Hindu oral and written texts from antiquity to the present Internet Age, when conservative factions use claims about scripture as the basis for attempts to ban works of religious art and literature.

Thursday, September 22nd at 5:30pm
Room 102, Sargent College
