

AHS: Fellowship & Fare Series!

"The Uplift of Women: Missions, Women's Rights,

David Scott

David, a Ph.D. student at Boston University, will be discussing women and missions. He is working on a dissertation that examines the way in which Methodist missionaries in Malaysia at the turn of the twentieth century participated in and created an expanding array of global networks.

Thursday, February 9, 2012

12:30-1:15p.m.

Anna Howard Shaw Center ~ STH Room

David W. Scott is a Ph.D. student in the Division of Religious and Theological Studies working with Dr. Dana Robert in the fields of missions history and World Christianity. His interests include the missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Christianity in Southeast Asia, and global religious networks.

*Join us for lunch, conversation,
and Reflection*

as David Scott shares his views with us!

BOSTON UNIVERSITY

