“Living Without Regrets”

*Dr. Amy Limpitlaw
Thursday, February 2, 2012
12:30—1:15 pm. Rm 320
Anna Howard Shaw Center*

On July 1, 2011, Amy Limpitlaw began her new position as the new Head Librarian for the School of Theology. Amy was recently the Research & Electronic Services Librarian for the Yale University Divinity Library, and she served before that as Associate Director of Vanderbilt University’s Divinity Library, where she had earlier served as Public Services Librarian. She brings wide library experience and passion for a service-oriented library. Amy also brings strong educational experience, having completed her masters and PhD in theology at The University of Chicago Divinity School, and her MS at Simmons College Graduate School of Library and Informational Science.

Join us for lunch, conversation & reflection as Amy shares
her story of living without regrets.
