

sociologyseminarseries

FRIDAYS, 12 PM (NOON) SOCIOLOGY 241

January 29

LAUREL SMITH-DOERR Boston University

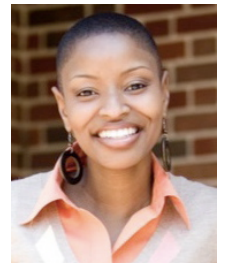

The Accidental Policymaker: Adventures in Studying and Doing Science Policy

February 12

ANJULET TUCKER Boston University

Race, Religion & Perceptions of Education: Debates & Conversations about Building Liberal Arts Schools in Two Pentecostal Denominations

February 26

JULIET SCHOR Boston College

Does Changing a Light Bulb Lead to Changing the World? Civic Engagement and the Ecologically Conscious Consumer

The Annual Albert Morris Lecture in Sociology
March 15, 5:30 PM, Photonics Center Colloquium Room
BERNICE PESCOSOLIDO Indiana University

The Stigma of Mental Illness: Data and Directions from a Decade of Research and Theory

April 9

MITCHELL L. STEVENS Stanford University

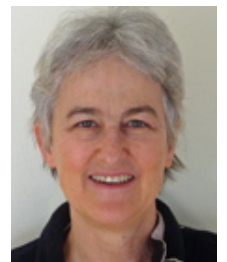

Ambivalent Internationals: American Social Science and the Dream of a Global Modern

April 23

NANCY FOLBRE Umass Amherst

Greed, Lust, and Gender: A History of Economic Ideas

May 7

DIANE VAUGHN Columbia University

Distinction, Class, and the Construction of Occupational Boundaries: The Case of Air Traffic Control

