The Department of Sociology proudly presents the 2013 - 14 Sociology Seminar Series featuring

Katherine Kellogg

presenting

Occupational Guardians and Implementing Reform among Professionals in Two Community Health Centers

Katherine C. Kellogg is an Associate Professor of Organizational Studies at MIT. She is the author of Challenging Operations: Medical Reform and Resistance in Surgery (University of Chicago Press, 2011, Winner of the Max Weber Award from the Organizations, Occupations and Work section and the Sociology of Law Biannual Distinguished Book Award from the Law section of the American Sociological Association). Her papers have been published in the American Journal of Sociology, the American Sociological Review, and Organization Science. Kellogg is using comparative ethnographic methods to study social change inside of organizations in response to social movements or legal regulation.

Friday, February 7th, 2014 - 12pm 96-100 Cummington Mall - Room 241

College of Arts & Sciences
For more information contact socdept@bu.edu