UNEASY PLACES: HOME, IDENTITY, AND COMMUNITY IN FLORIDA MOBILE HOME PARKS

Margarethe Kusenbach is Associate Professor and Graduate Director in the Department of Sociology at the University of South Florida, Tampa. She received her Ph.D. in Sociology from the University of California, Los Angeles in 2003. Dr. Kusenbach has published widely on urban neighborhoods, emotions, disasters, and qualitative methods, and she recently edited a book "Home: International Perspectives on Culture, Identity, and Belonging" (with Krista Paulsen). Her present research and book project focus on issues of place, identity, and emotions in Florida mobile home communities; additional research interests include social marginality and sustainability. Dr. Kusenbach is the current president of the Society for the Study of Symbolic Interaction (SSSI).
