Reserved Seats in Classes

SPH academic departments have the option of reserving seats in their courses for students of specific concentrations. The courses listed below have seats reserved. If you are closed out of a course that appears to have seats but is flagged, fill out a wait list form www.bu.edu/sph/students/resources/forms) to be added to the wait list. Seat reservations for new students in cores will be in place through July.
