

Assistant Professor Graduate Social Work

Join a vibrant campus community whose excellence is reflected in its diversity and student success. West Chester University of Pennsylvania's Department of Graduate Social Work invites applicants for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position to begin August 2014.

We are seeking candidates interested in teaching social work practice courses at the graduate level. These positions will require faculty to teach both day and evening classes in the MSW Program at the West Chester and Philadelphia campuses.

Applicants must possess an MSW degree from a CSWE-accredited program and have a PhD in social work or a DSW. Candidates at an advanced stage of completing doctoral studies in social work will also be considered. Applicants must successfully complete interview process to be considered as a finalist.

Strong preference will be given to applicants with a minimum of two years of post-masters direct practice experience.

Candidates should submit a curriculum vita, a letter outlining teaching and research expertise, a current sample of writing and the names of three persons who can provide professional references. Submit applications materials online at <http://agency.governmentjobs.com/wcupa/default.cfm>. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Correspondence should be directed to the Faculty Search Committee Chair, Wan-Yi Chen, Ph.D., (wchen@wcupa.edu).

Developing and sustaining a diverse faculty and staff advances WCU's educational mission. The University is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer encouraging diversity. Women, persons of color, veterans and persons with disabilities are encouraged to apply. The filling of this position is contingent upon available funding.

All offers of employment are subject to and contingent upon satisfactory completion of all pre-employment criminal checks.
