

Erika Vargas, LCSW, received her MSW from Boston University School of Social Work in 2010 with a concentration in Group Work. After graduating, Erika worked in Boston at The Home for Little Wanderers and then moved to Hawaii in 2014 where she is currently the Manager of Adult Services at Hina Mauka. While in Boston, Erika served on the Steering Committee for BUSSW Alumni Board and served as Secretary on the International Association of Social Work Groups. Erika is also an Online Instructor for Alcoholism and Drug Abuse and Racial Justice and Cultural Oppression courses for Boston University's Online MSW program. Erika has a passion for community-based work, children and families, and teaching and developing aspiring social workers.