

Jennifer Grahek joined Boston University School of Social Work in 2009, working as the Registrar. In 2011, Jennifer began working in the Online Program in its inaugural year as Program Administrator. In her current role as OLP Administrator, Jennifer works with students on program planning, student services, graduation requirements, as well as serves as a first semester advisor. She is the recipient of the 2014 Outstanding Contribution to the School of Social Work Award. Jennifer is a 2005 graduate from Northeastern University (B.S., Sociology) and 2008 graduate of Boston University School of Education (Ed.M., Counseling). In her spare time, she enjoys volunteering as a Boston University Undergraduate Mentor and assisting high school students with the college application process.