

Kathleen Wheeler-McDonough, LCSW, MDiv, ACHP-SW, joined Boston University School of Social Work in 2012 as an Advisor for the Online MSW Program, and currently advises students in the Maine and Vermont areas. Kathy received her undergraduate degree from the University of Southern Maine in 1995, and earned her Master of Social Work degree from Boston University in 1997. Kathy has worked with children, families and adults in the Mental Health Outpatient arena, which included being the Team Leader /Supervisor for the Children's ACT Team, and was also instrumental in starting a Complementary Services Program for children during that time. After spending the next 5 years as a Hospice Social Worker, Kathy is currently the Manager of Counseling and Volunteer Services and National MSW Educator for a National Hospice company.