

Gina Baird, LICSW received her M.S.W. from Boston University School of Social Work in 2009, and obtained a Certificate in Cognitive Behavioral Health from Boston University in 2012. Gina has worked primarily with women and children in a variety of settings, including community mental health, hospitals and private practice. Gina worked as a Pediatric Medical Social Worker at Brigham and Women's Hospital for several years, where she was also a supervisor for M.S.W. students. Gina now lives in Seattle, where she currently works at University of Washington Medical Center, while also having a private practice and serving as a facilitator for local Listening Mother's Groups. Gina has been a field advisor for BUSSW since January 2016.