

Jennifer Donaldson received her MSW from Boston University in 2002. Jennifer has experience working with people from diverse backgrounds providing counseling, disability support and prevention based services. She has worked with young children, foster care, elderly, adolescents, gang affiliated adolescents, young mothers and most recently within a post-secondary setting providing counseling, disability services, crisis management, Student Development, advising, International Students, Military students and leadership development. Jennifer has been a Field Advisor with BU since May 2015 and has been a Field Instructor for local Universities for 5 years.