

Roberta (Robbie) Sanders, LCSW received her MSW from McGill University School of Social Work (Montreal, Canada) in 1997. After providing clinical services in youth-serving programs, Robbie turned her attention to non-profit management where she served as a Program Director for over 15 years overseeing both residential and workforce readiness programs. As a Program Director and Administrator, Robbie led overall program management, staff supervision, program design, partnership development, performance outcomes and managing multiple funding streams. Robbie joined the Boston University School of Social Work (BUSSW) as an Online MSW Program Regional Advisor in 2016 after having worked closely with BUSSW as an MSW Field Instructor for nearly 20 years. In addition to her work as an Online Program Regional Advisor, Robbie works for The Department of Labor and YouthBuild USA providing guidance and technical assistance to YouthBuild Programs nationwide.
