Purchasing Textbooks

Boston University contracts with Barnes and Noble at BU to sell books for all its courses. If you purchase texts through another vendor please be sure that you have the correct ISBN and the correct text edition. We suggest that you purchase the Research II (SR 744) text with CD bundle through Barnes and Noble and not another vendor.

Purchasing all course books one month before the semester begins will ensure that you will have enough time get the books and to complete reading assignments. Due to the compressed model of course delivery with OCP classes, it is expected that students complete reading assignments one week ahead of class.
