Final MTS Project Reflection

STUDENT EVALUATION:
Write a summary reflection of 3-4 pages on your semester’s experience that includes the following elements:

1) A brief description of the setting or organizational context in which you are working, highlighting some of the key social dynamics you have identified in the implementation of your project.
2) Describe the work you have done, including the mentoring relationship you have had with your site/project supervisor. What have you accomplished during the semester and what particular questions emerged from your practices and reflections.
3) Identify what you have learned about your skills and passions while doing this work. If possible provide one or more concrete examples of times when you saw your own vocation more clearly.
4) How has this project helped you understand your own theological or value system more clearly? How might you describe this as a form of religious leadership?
5) Identify the concrete product(s) of your project.

SUPERVISOR EVALUATION:
Please provide an evaluation (no more than 3 pages long) that includes the following elements:

1) A brief description of the work done by the student to fulfill his/her MTS project.
2) Growth you observed in ability to reflect on the work – theologically or socially. What questions or responses emerged as he/she engaged the site and your supervisory conversations/dialogues?
3) Any other observations about the student and his/her accomplishments during the implementation of the project.
