

Welcome to your first edition of the Quay (pronounced 'key' by the way). Below you can find events happening in Sydney this week and some important updates from the staff. Enjoy your weekend, and be sure to check out the events below for a head start on planning weekend fun!

Lorraine on Academics

"If you are unable to access any of your courses through blackboard please email me at lles@iinet.net.au."

Bondi Markets

Saturday 9am-1pm

Campbell Parade, Bondi

Every Saturday locals flock to Bondi Farmers Market to shop for fresh veg, organic meats, freshly picked flowers, an artisan loaf and homemade spreads and cheeses directly from the growers and makers. Have a stroll and meet some of the deepest roots in Sydney.

bondimarkets.com.au/farmers

Pascal on Residence

"If you have maintenance issues, please be advised that our handyman is in on Mondays and Fridays only. Please use email to lodge your maintenance requests to me at pdurr@bu.edu."

NSW Waratahs - Super Rugby Champions

Saturday, 13 June, 7:30pm

Allianz Stadium, Moore Park

With state pride on the line, the Super Rugby Champions will go head to head with the Reds in the final round of the Super Rugby season.

See some of the biggest names in Australian Rugby compete and chow down on some classic sausage sizzle. The Waratahs are looking to secure the top spot of the Australian Super Rugby teams and will be fighting to keep the championship trophy in NSW. If you are keen to check out rugby, don't miss out on this great match. Tickets start from $67.

waratahs.com.au/Waratahs

Advisors on Internships

"Being open-minded and having the right attitude are both key at this stage. Also, remember to set up voicemail on your phones so both your advisor and on-site supervisor can reach you!"

EVENT OF THE WEEK

Sydney Film Festival

Various Dates until 14 June

Various Locations

This year's instalment delivers a dozen days and nights of movie magic, but there's only half a week left to catch a flick or two. Sydney Film Festival's 2015 program is here and it's got more to be excited about in less than a week than you'll find in a year's worth of regular cinema viewing. Check out the link below to grab tickets to a showing in the next few days.

sff.org.au

No Lights No Lycra Newtown

Thursdays, 7:30-8:30pm

189 Church Street, Newtown

Dance like no one is watching! No Lights No Lycra is a dance party in the dark, where they dig out everything from cheese to gangsta rap, and tracks you'd find in your parents' CD collection. It may be only an hour in the dark, but everyone ends up rocking out and getting sweaty by the end of the session. This is a great way to check out Newtown and will only cost you $5!

nolightsnolykra.com/location/sydney

Five Dollar Fridaze

Fridays, 12, 19, 26 June 7-10pm

156 Enmore Road, Enmore

The Hideaway Bar in Enmore is celebrating the party end of the week with five-dollar specials between 7pm and 10pm. Spiced rum cocktails and schooners of Young Henrys Newtowner will only cost you a fiver for that sweet, three-hour happy hour. Not a bad deal to start off the weekend!

facebook.com/the/the.hideaway.bar

Pascal on Emergency Protocol

"If you are traveling, don't forget to email me your travel details with your name, companions, dates, destination, accommodation, and flight itinerary."