March 2014

Spring Fun in Boston

- Third Thursdays at the Isabella Gardner Museum: Experience a night of beauty and art in one of Boston's many museums. There will be live music and admission is free with your BU ID. Enjoy on March 20th at 5:30 pm.
- Dine Out Boston: Twice a year local restaurants put together special fixed-price meals for locals and visitors alike. The Spring dates are March 16th-21st and March 23rd-28th. Visit the Dine Out website for specific participating restaurants.
- Red Sox Opening Day: Cheer on the World Series Champions on April 4th when they begin the 2014 season at home versus the Milwaukee Brewers.

We have many fun and informative events coming up, but we need your help. If you want to get involved, email Jess!

First Gen Focus Group

In order to best serve your needs as First Gen college students, we need your help. We will be hosting a First Gen Focus Group at Panera Bread (across the street from USC) on March 20th from 4:00 to 5:00 pm. Join us for conversation over a complimentary coffee and bakery item as we discuss this year and beyond. Please RSVP by March 18th at <http://firstgenfocusgroup.eventbrite.com>.

Fall Semester Registration

Registration for Fall classes begins April 6th, but it's never too early to start planning. To find specific times to register, click here. Here are a few tips: Go to Student Link to make sure you're in compliance. Use the Planner under Student Link to plan your schedule. If you need guidance about what classes to take, ask your advisor for help!
Good luck!
