On Campus Opportunities: Peer Tutoring

Peer Tutors are students, just like you, who can help you understand difficult course material and teach more effective study skills. Depending on your needs, the Educational Resource Center offers two types of Peer Tutoring appointments: weekly and single sessions. Start searching for a tutor now!

First Gen Connect Fall Social

Meet other incoming first gen students and the University Service Center staff, connect with the upperclassmen in our Volunteer Corps, and enjoy some delicious desserts.

Come learn about the program, how you can benefit from it and see what the First Gen Connect community has to offer!

September 21st, 5:30 pm

College of General Studies, Room 330
Katzenberg Center, 3rd Floor
871 Commonwealth Avenue

For more information and tickets:

*Gluten-free, Dairy-free, and Vegan options available

Become a Volunteer

First Gen Connect hosts monthly events for first generation college students at BU, but we need your help and skills. If you would like to help us with social media, set-up, promotion, or photography for events, contact Hannah at uscgradi@bu.edu or Terrie at tvincent@bu.edu. Past events have included socials, study breaks, financial aid workshops, study skills workshops, and many more!
