COURSE OVERVIEW
The course is intended as to understand the historical background, birth and development of the Renaissance painting in Tuscany, in particular Florence and Siena. These two cities have been the only centers for the development of the new artistic language and style during the XIV and XV centuries. We will analyze the political, social and cultural background of masterpieces of several artists from Giotto to Michelangelo, and then we will focus to the artistic contents of their works. We will also take into account the ways and routes along which this new artistic language spread all over Italy, including a survey on Piero della Francesca in central Italy, Leonardo in Milan, as well Raffaello and Michelangelo in Rome. In Padova, we will focus, in details, on works we can see directly, by two leading artists such as Giotto and Donatello. We will visit the Cappella degli Scrovegni (Giotto) and the Basilica del Santo (Donatello).

ATTENDANCE
Boston University Padova students are expected to attend each and every class session, tutorial, and field trips required for the class. Students should note that attendance will be taken into account by faculty when determining final grades. Students absent from class for medical reasons need to provide a local doctor’s note. No food and drink in class.

PLAGIARISM
Simply stated, plagiarism is taking another’s work and presenting it as you own Dictionary definitions of plagiarism frequently include terms such as ‘theft’ or ‘steal’. Plagiarism is, in fact, intellectual theft. It is one of the most serious forms of academic misconduct. Plagiarism committed by a student will certainly result in course failure and may result in suspension or dismissal. For more details please see Boston University’s Code of Student Responsibilities http://www.bu.edu/lifebook/university-policies/policies-code.html

RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS
Boston University’s Office of the University Registrar states: ‘The University, in scheduling classes on religious holidays and observances, intends that students observing those traditions be given ample opportunity to make up work. Faculty members who wish to observe religious holidays will arrange for another faculty member to meet their classes or for cancelled classes to be rescheduled.’ See Chapter 151C of the General Laws, Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
