Below you will find listed the terms of the residence agreement for Dublin Internship Program participants. All students must agree to these terms and sign this contract stating so. Please make a copy for your own records.

Students on Boston University’s Dublin programs are subject to the same policies, procedures, and codes of conduct in place at Boston University. Students are prohibited from engaging in conduct at DCU that poses a threat to the health or safety of persons or property, that interferes with the rights or well-being of others, or that violates any provision of the Code of Student Responsibilities, this residence agreement, any rule/regulation of the University or BU Study Abroad, or any other applicable law. Students found in violation of these policies, rules, and regulations will be subject to University disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from the University.

Students must abide by all rules and regulations that may be established by BU Study Abroad and the Director in the interests of health, safety, the proper conduct of students, and the orderly and efficient operation and administration of the program and its residential system.
