About the Student Panelists

Heather Cohen | School of Education
Major: English Education with a sub-concentration in Teaching English as a Second Language
Heather is a sophomore from Doylestown, Pennsylvania. On campus, Heather participates in the School of Education Dean’s Host program that introduces admitted and prospective students to the school. She is also involved with the Transitional Mentor program within the School of Education that pairs up first year students with mentors for the year. She plans to student teach in Sydney, Australia in the fall of 2016. In her free time, she loves going to concerts at the House of Blues and visiting the Museum of Fine Arts. Her advice to incoming students is to not be afraid to explore the city. Go with friends and see all that Boston has to offer! Questions? Contact Heather at hcohen94@bu.edu.

Alexandre George Gutierrez | College of Engineering
Major: Mechanical Engineering
Alexandre is a sophomore from Round Rock, Texas. Since last semester, he has been an Engineering Ambassador for the College of Engineering. He further serves his engineering community as the Tech Lead for Engineers Without Boarders for the Bio-Sand Filtration team where they are currently working on a project that is based in Zambia. Alexandre is also proud to be the co-captain of the Super Smash Brothers intercollegiate team at BU, and has run a 200-participant northeastern tournament for the team. In his free time, Alexandre enjoys playing guitar and piano. His advice to incoming freshmen is to take a variety of classes in all the fields you enjoy and get involved with as many clubs as possible! Questions? Contact Alexandre at alexguti@bu.edu.

Jeremy Weprich | College of Arts & Sciences and Kilachand Honors College
Majors: Sociology and Hispanic Language & Literatures
Jeremy is a senior from Indianapolis, Indiana. On campus, Jeremy participates in the College of Arts & Sciences Dean’s Host program that introduces admitted prospective students to the college. He spent last spring semester abroad through the BU Madrid Internship program where he worked for the Spanish Department of Education. You can find him practicing piano in a practice room in the College of Fine Arts, or working as a Student Admissions Representative at BU Admissions. Questions? Contact Jeremy at jweprich@bu.edu.

Issa Kenyatta | College of Communication
Major: Film and Television
Issa Kenyatta is a current junior from Atlanta, Georgia majoring in Film/Television within the College of Communication. Issa quickly became involved with the Howard Thurman Center as a student ambassador and has helped the center further achieve its mission of creating a stronger student community at BU. Moreover, Issa has been involved as a Co-host for the Common Thread Podcast where he interviews guests across the BU community about different social issues facing our world today. He also plays an active role in BU Residence Life as a Resident Assistant and has been involved as a member of BU’s student-operated media production network, butv10. Questions? Contact Issa at issak@bu.edu.

Stephanie Gianni | School of Management
Major: Business Administration with a concentration in Marketing  Minor: Arts Leadership
Stephanie is a senior from Los Gatos, California. On campus, Stephanie is the Vice President of Edge Dance Company, Treasurer of Dance Theatre Group, and an active member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. In the spring of 2014, Stephanie participated in BU’s London Internship Program, where she was a Marketing and Press Intern at the English National Ballet. In her free time, you’ll find Stephanie rehearsing with her dance groups or exploring the city’s neighborhoods and restaurants. Her advice to incoming freshmen is to get involved right away by continuing activities you enjoy or trying something new; it will make the BU community so much smaller! Questions? Contact Stephanie at sgianni@bu.edu.
