SUBJECT: Agenda for Meeting on Wednesday, November 11, 2015

This is a revised (second time) agenda for our discussion on Wednesday, November 11, 2015. We will meet, as usual, at 4:00 PM in CAS 200.

The following is an overview of the items up for discussion and review:

1. A request from the Department of English for CAS EN 180 (Post-Apocalyptic Narratives) to carry Humanities (HU) divisional studies credit (short list). Please refer to the “Divisional Studies Credit” portion (highlighted in yellow) of the New Course Proposal Form

2. A request from the American & New England Studies Program for CAS AM 202 (What’s Boston?) to carry Humanities (HU) divisional studies credit (short list), as recently endorsed by the Humanities Curriculum Committee

3. A proposal from the Department of English to change the way it awards course credit on the basis of the International Baccalaureate (IB) English Language A-Literature exam score

4. A proposal from the Linguistics Program for the establishment of an intercollegiate major (BA) in Linguistics & Speech, Language, and Hearing Sciences, to be offered in conjunction with the College of Health & Rehabilitation Sciences: Sargent College

5. A proposal from the Department of Romance Studies for the establishment of a minor in Portuguese & Brazilian Cultural Studies
