Research & Communications Internship for
BU Global Programs India Initiatives

Overview: Global Programs

Global Programs advances Boston University's global strategy and serves as a champion for internationally oriented initiatives at home in Boston and abroad. We work to support a stronger, larger, and ever more diverse portfolio of global activities that builds on BU’s strengths.

Mission:

Connecting BU CAS Freshman to BU Global Programs via internships.

Goals:

As an intern, you will work with BU Global Programs India Initiatives, a group that advances BU’s goals in India. In this role, you will learn how to support and coordinate research and communications-related projects, which may include projects involving web maintenance, light data analysis, outreach, and event planning and promotion.

Supervisor/Mentor:

Although you will report directly to one supervisor, guidance and mentorship will come from a variety of sources to introduce the concept of working in a dynamic, multi-faceted professional setting and enhance the learning experience. Your supervisor will be the Director for India Initiatives in Global Programs.

Learning Outcomes:

You can expect to leave the experience with a stronger understanding or ability for the following:

- A global mindset, with a focus on India activities.
- Communicating through social media.
- General office support work.
- Skills in developing a professional network of contacts to leverage for current and future projects.
- Strategies for planning and executing an event that will meet your organization’s needs and the expectations of your target audience.
- The ability to update website content and create new pages using Wordpress, as well as analyze web traffic using Google Analytics.
