This agreement is signed by Student and Instructor as a commitment to attend the undersigned student’s dress rehearsal and recital as necessary; it is additionally signed by the recital Accompanist, if one is required, to indicate that he or she has received proposed dates and times from the Student and has sufficient availability on those dates and at those times to provide service. All parties agree to retain availability for the dates and times above to the best of their ability and to communicate with the Student if conflicts arise. Should a change be necessary, it is the responsibility of the Instructor or Accompanist to notify the Student, and the Student to notify all other parties as well as the Scheduling and Programs Office. Student and Instructor will be notified by the Scheduling and Programs Office once a date has been reserved or if there is a need to explore alternate dates.
