Dear Friends,

Welcome to the ministry of Marsh Chapel! Here you will find a heart in the heart of the global city and a worship service in the service of the global city. Here you will find passionate interest in matters related to gospel voice, personal vocation, and congregational volume. I look forward to knowing your name!

Please peruse the opportunities described herein for ministry, music, hospitality, and international engagement. Find your way to your own true interests in our midst. Get to know Br. Larry, Rev. Longsdorf, Dr. Jarrett, and Mr. Bouchard. I look forward to their knowing your name!

For Marsh Chapel to be the leading liberal pulpit in the country, the exemplary collegium for vocational discernment in our time, and the largest University congregation in the country, we need you. We need your Sunday presence, your tithing generosity, your acceptance of service roles, your prayer before worship and night and day, and mainly your own best self.

Our preaching this year will cycle around and through an engagement with ‘Spirit.’ We will of course follow the common lectionary and offer ordered 11 a.m. Sunday worship in the Marsh tradition. The sermons will ‘test the spirits to see if any be of God’ (1 John 4:1). They will speak with those who are spiritual but not necessarily religious.

In particular, the first Sunday sermons will explore ‘The Marsh Spirit.’ What is the particular, soulful spirit of our community here, after these sixty years? What makes ‘Marsh Chapel’ Marsh Chapel? Then also, once each month, a theme sermon will explore what the Spirit is saying to the Church on issues of the moment (the moral equivalents of war, religion on campus, safety and student life, drones, law and love in the United Methodist Church, and other). Advent and Lent will give us seasons of Spirit cycles. In Lent, we will debate Jonathan Edwards, but on the matter of Spirit.

So find your way to the Paraclete. Open your door to the ‘Spirit of Truth.’ Study a little about the Holy Spirit. Channel your inner Third Person persona. And get ready – the word this year: Spirit.

See you Sunday!

Bob Hill
Dean of Marsh Chapel

Please feel free to stay until you are prayed with as the service continues to hold us all in worship. Also, if you, clergy or laity, find yourself drawn to participate in the ministry of the healing prayer group, please contact Rev. Victoria Gaskell, OSL, Chapel Associate, vgaskell@bu.edu.

They include fine arts performances, lectures in the sciences and humanities, sporting events, and presentations related to theological and religious ideas. As a community of faith, we have the joy and privilege of worshipping and serving within a vibrant university, whose offerings frequently present modes of growth for us as individuals and as a congregation. We encourage you to consider each week’s “Dean’s Choice,” and when possible, to attend those most meaningful for you.

Tuesdays - 6:00 – 8:00 p.m. - Thurman Room
The International Fellowship is a group that creates safe, sacred spaces for fellowship, relational ministry, and spiritual exploration. Primarily, we do this by cooking cultural foods together, sharing in the meal, and discussing spirituality and cultural heritage. This group is open to people of all nationalities and religions and it thrives on diversity. Our goal is to form relationships at the table and to seek wisdom, comfort, counseling, and spiritual growth through those relationships. (Contact: Rev. Brittany Longsdorf, britt1@bu.edu)

CULTURE CAUCUS
Wednesdays (Sept. 17; Oct. 1, 15, and 29; Nov. 12; Dec. 3)
5:00 – 8:00 p.m. - Meet on Marsh Plaza
This group is for international students and friends who want to explore through tangible experiences both American culture and other international cultures present in America. As a group, we watch cultural films, visit Boston landmarks, museums, cultural heritage sites, and enjoy international cuisine. This caucus’s purpose is to enable the exploration of the cultures represented at B.U., as well as the wider city of Boston, through sensory experience and fellowship. (Contact: Rev. Brittany Longsdorf, britt1@bu.edu)

BOSTON UNIVERSITY UNITED METHODIST FELLOWSHIP
Every other Wednesday - 5:30 - 7:30 p.m. - Thurman Room
Methodist undergraduates meet for good company, good conversation, good food, and Communion once a month. The first gathering of the semester is on September 3. (Contact: Rev. Victoria Hart Gaskell, OSL, vgaskell@bu.edu)

INTERFAITH COUNCIL
The Interfaith Council works to promote understanding and cooperation between all religious and non-religious traditions through education, in order to achieve religious literacy; through discussion, to enable open and honest communication; and by coming together over shared values through service. For meeting times and information about other events, see the Interfaith Council blog at http://buifc.wordpress.com.
ABOLITIONIST CHAPEL TODAY

Sundays (Sept. 21, Oct. 26, Nov. 23, Dec. 28) - 12:30 p.m.
Marsh Chapel is reaching out in conversation with individuals and groups at Boston University and in the Massachusetts Abolitionist Network to raise awareness, educate, and involve people directly against the crime of modern-day slavery/human trafficking.

Modern-day slavery is the world’s second-largest criminal activity, involving more than 27 million people held in situations of forced labor/debt bondage, sexual exploitation, child soldiering, and/or sale of body parts. At least 1 million people live in slavery situations in this country alone, some of them in Boston. The good news is that many exciting things are being done, in Boston and around the world, to stop modern-day slavery/human trafficking.

For more information, to extend the conversation, or to join the monthly research and program group (dates listed above; all meetings with complimentary lunch) contact Rev. Victoria Hart Gaskell, Chapel Associate, at vgaskell@bu.edu.

OUTLOOK: LGBTQ MINISTRY

OUTlook, Marsh Chapel’s LGBTQ Ministry, is a community where lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer/questioning students—and their allies—can safely explore spirituality without fear of judgment or discrimination. We are a group of people who view spirituality and sexuality as something to discover and embrace, not ignore or oppress. When we say “all people are invited,” we mean it. Information about meetings and special events is available on the Chapel website. (Contact: Rev. Liz Douglass, lmd@bu.edu)
